The dragon has got an idea.

Dragon: Can I have fish, please?
I love fish!

Ala: Seals eat fish. You are not a seal. You're a dragon!

Maciek: I'm hungry, too. I've got a salad in my lunch box.
Do you want some, Ala?

Ala: No, thank you. I'm not hungry.

6

Storyteller: The dragon is looking at Maciek's salad. He likes it.

Dragon: Can I have some salad, please?

Janek: Dragons don't eat plants! They eat meat.

Dragon: But I'm not a dragon. I'm a seal.

Zosia: Seals don't eat plants! They eat fish.

Dragon: Then what do dragons eat?

Everybody: Dragons eat meat!

Authors' acknowledgments

We would like to thank everyone at Macmillan, in Oxford and Spain, who lent their skills, insight and encouragement in bringing this course to life. We are also very grateful to our work colleagues and students for their contributions and inspiration. Finally, we would like to thank our families and friends for their enthusiastic support, especially Sophia, Sean and Anna, for their child-like vision, and Ramón and Nuala, for their unwavering patience and understanding.
The authors would also like to thank: Elspeth Pollock, Harriet Cole, Clare
Thornely, Richard Johnson Golding, teachers and students at English Language Institute, Sevilla Linda Harper, Claire Potter, Hannah Duncan, Katie Roberts, teachers and students at Academia Británica, Huelva.
